7. Enterprise members may select a course offering of choice and enroll in an asynchronous module or for an in-person or virtual training education session.

Course Title	Description	Rating	Lessons	Enrolled
Appreciating Diverse Experiences	In this session, you will be able to recognize some information and misinformation learned about other groups while examining personal biases and stereotypes that impact individuals, relationships and their own personal development. As a result, appreciate that diversity promotes healthier leadership and decision making.	★★★★★ (0)	2 lessons	70 enrolled
Creating Community Connections: Judaism 101	Let's collaborate and create impactful community connections with Judaism 101. Hate and discrimination have profound effects, and studies point to the negative health impacts on people because of this. As part of our endeavor to become the preeminent model as an equitable institution, join us as we partner to offer inclusive education and training opportunities to heal our community. Led by Natanya Miller & Rabbi Aaron Sherman from the Charleston Jewish Federation, this session will focus on understanding core principles of Judaism.	★★★★★ (1)	1 lesson	35 enrolled
Effective Allyship	MUSC is committed to creating an inclusive experience for the lives we touch. One of the ways we can maximize our impact is by ensuring the allyship we engage in is both effective and inclusive. Learn more about the importance of education, creating and practicing accountability, and role modeling support for communities and identities other than your own.	★★★★★ (0)	1 lesson	40 enrolled
Embracing Generational Differences	The workplace is more diverse than ever—especially when it comes to generational representation. For the first time in history, five generations – Traditionalists, Baby Boomers, Generation X (or Gen Xers), Millennials and Generation Z – are working together under the same roof. This 2-hour session can help one better understand the differences among generations and offers strategies to boost engagement and communication across the entire workforce.	★★★★★ (3)	1 lesson	125 enrolled
Having Difficult Conversations	Enterprise Wide - Having Difficult Conversations Workshop Purpose: This 4-hour workshop is designed to assist individuals in having difficult conversations. Participants will define controversy, differentiate between coalition building and advocacy, reflect on current events and engage in dialogue to find common ground.	★★★★★ (2)	1 lesson	112 enrolled
